TRIO OF ATHLETICS IN REPORTED TRADE WITH THE INDIANS

Gardner, Jamieson and Elmer Myers Slated for Cleveland in Exchange for Bobby Roth and Evans-Connie Makes His Usual and Expected Denial

> By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

WHERE there's smoke there certainly must be fire, so the persistent rumors drifting in here every day from Cleveland lead one to believe hat Connie Mack has a big deal on with Lee Pohl, of the Indians, and in short time a flock of players will change hands. For more than a month t has been hinted that Larry Gardner, Jimmy Jamieson and Elmer Myers would be shipped westware for Bobby Roth and Joe Evans, the third basean, but Connie refuses to discuss anything pertaining to the deal.

"I never hand out advance notices of trades I am trying to put trough," said the slim schemer. "As soon as everything has been sealed nd signed I shall open up, but at present I have nothing to say. Howver, if the other fellows talk I can't help it. I shall neither deny nor firm the rumor, so you may draw your own conclusions."

That's a lot to get out of Connie when he has the padlock on his chin. is we are much obliged. But here is some dope spilled by Ed Bang, the Neveland expert, who usually knows what he is talking about. Ed received letter from Connic boosting the chances of the Cleveland club in the ennant race, and part of the chatter follows:

"Mack also likes the Indians in virtually every department of the game. He says Chapman and Wamby are a great pair around the keystone sack. and adds that Evens is a sure comer at third. (Incidentally, Mr. Mack lidn't say a word about Larry Gardner leaving his team to become an Indian.) The outfield is bound to be strong with Speaker, Wood, Grancy Smith and possibly Roth (another bit of silence on Mack's part) to look after the pastures.

44 T 18 our hunch that Larry Gardner will give Evans a battle for that third base job-providing Joe remains with the club."

Big Job to Select Proper Training Camp

HE champion Red Sox baseball club is having a tough job selecting a training camp for the high-class talent. First it was announced that he Harry Frazee troupe would get in shape at Tampa, later it was changed to good old St. Petersburg, and now comes a yarn that Havana has invited the boys to work out on the island. In the meantime Larry Graver, the busy secretary, is touring in the South trying to detect a suitable spot for the spring conditioning.

This training camp problem is a hard one because the magnates cannot nd the financial strain so early in the season. So much money is paid out that every manager is instructed to arrange as many exhibition games possible to get some money. Those exhibition games make it difficult to find training spots where the clubs can meet. The Phils gave up Si etersburg because they were alone down there and it was all going out ind nothing coming in. Now the Red Sox are in the same predicament

There are two clubs this year, however, that will devote the entire aining period to getting the men into shape for the coming race. They re the Giants, who will work out at Gainsville, Fia., and Cleveland, at low Orleans. The Giants will not even linger in Jacksonville to play the Yankees, but intend to go to Washington to play the Senators. Cleveland vill remain in New Orleans until it comes time to leave for the North ad then will go direct to Detroit for the opening game. It will be interting to note how the experiment works.

Cincinnati and Pat Moran will be in Waxahatchie this spring. The rbulent Mississippi River has been on a rampage and a few floods ruined e ball park, but the park will be rebuilt for the Reds' benefit.

Speaking of Cincinnati brings back the Garry Herrmann case and way to remove him from the National Commission. Garry is doomed. hey say, and his successor might be none other than I. E. "Cy" Sanborn. e Chicago baseball scribe. Sanborn knows lots of baseball and would be ideal man for the job.

T 18 said Ban Johnson favors him, and William Veeck, the other member of the National committee with W. F. Baker, has suggested his name. This is the latest dope on the case.

Big Year for Delaware River Yachtsmen

ACHTING and powerboat racing should be popular this year and a great season is predicted by the various officials. During the war so any men were assigned to submarine chasers on the Atlantic coast and ad so many cruises that a new crop of yachting fans was created. When he sailors are mustered out a great majority will turn to boat-racing and rive the sport a much-needed boost. The year 1919 should be a banner one.

On the Delaware River things will hum from the opening of the season m May 30 until the finale on September 27. For the first time in several ears everything will be lovely and peaceful on the river, there will be to opposition races or hard feelings among the clubs and a spirit of barony will prevail. The two organizations—the Delaware River Yachtsien's League and the Delaware River Yacht Racing Association-have puried the hatchet, smoked the pipe of peace and agreed to agree this year, nd as a result an extensive program has been prepared by Secretaries Frank Von Neida, of the league, and Joseph W. Broomhead, of the asso-

The 1919 schedule is as follows May 30-Riverside opening.

June 7-Special cruiser race for Cartiedge trophy, distance to be dermined later. This race will be open for four-cylinder boats. June 14outing to Westville. June 21-D. R. Y. L. race to Decpwater Point and eturn, starting and finishing at Riverside Yacht Club.

July 4-General celebration under the auspices of the Faragut Sportsen's Association. July 12-Anchor Yacht Club outing. July 18-19-Overfalls race for cruisers from Camden Motorboat Club to Overfalls Light: distance, 120 miles.

August 7-Wissinoming race, open to glass cabin boats and cruisers. ugust 15-D. R. Y. L. interclub race, but open to all boats in the American Powerboat Association. August 17-Cruise for one week in Chesapeake Bay, under auspices of Riverside Yacht Club. August 39-Class race, open to all boats in American Powerboat Association. September 1-Record trophy race to Wilmington and return. Septemr 6-Speedboat races at Camden. September 13-Du Pont trophy cruiner race, from Riverside to Ship John Light. September 27-Trenton races om a Philadelphia club, to be selected later, to Trenton.

THERE are twenty clubs in the 3100 organizations, and with every-thing running serenely there should be some great doings on the water this summer. It will be about the only moist sport to indulge in after the country goes dry.

Roller-Skating Races Prove Popular

POR a long time we have been unaware of a popular sport which has been thriving in our midst-medning roller-skating races and things ike that. Jimmy Clark, the hustling promoter, has been staging speed wents twice a week all winter, and judging from the crowds the sport is

Last Wednesday night Jimmy put on two races at the Palace, and hey were full of thrills. The first was an open event of two-thirds of a ile, for soldiers and sailors. About twenty of the guardians of our nation aced the starter and competed for the prize. Vernon Hancock, of Austin. ex., an able seaman on the destroyer Tatnall, won the race in an exciting nish. After that a relay was put on between Jim Alameda, of the Palace. nd Mike Ward, of Norristown, on one side, and Billy Troop, of the Palace, nd Charley Kelly, of the United States navy, on the other. The latter won because Alameda could not remain on his feet.

CLARK is arranging for a big professional race meet, to start next month and continue until April 15. More than $2500 in prizes will be awarded and the best skaters in the country are expected

"Big Three" Getting Into Deep Water

MEVERE criticism of Harvard, Yale and Princeton because of their alleged closed athletic associations, is being made by several of the other colleges. The sharpest and loudest protest against the actions of "Big Three," however, comes from Ithaca, the home of Cornell Univer-The Cornell Daily Sun, in discussing the situation, calls the actions Yale, Harvard and Princeton undemocratic and against the spirit of the The Ithacans freely predict that the attempt to built up a "sport racy" is courting disaster and the policy of self-sufficiency and selfned competition will prove a boomerang.

THE sentiments which have been expressed by the Cornell Daily Eus are shared by other colleges, including Pennsylvania, Pitts-burgh, Syrocuse and Cohumbia.

ANOTHER COLLEGIATE ORGANIZATION TO BE FORMED TOMORROW

Thirty Institutions of New York and New England Section Invited to Springfield Meeting

MAY HARM I. A. A. A. A.

By ROBERT T. PAUL

ANOTHER intercollegiate association is to be formed. We have the "Big Three," there is quite a bit of scandal about the organization of a "Big Four," the western institutions have their socalled "Big Ten," and now we are to have still another. The latest is to be known as the "Big Thirty."

If the "league-of-colleges" idea continues to grow at its present pace for the next year it would not be the least bit surprising to hear of the "Big Five Hundred" or some other "big hundred." It is quite necessary that the word "big" be used, otherwise the colleges or something like that.

Tired of Being Second Fiddle

The intrenchment of the larger colloges in strengthening their alliances and virtually shutting off even secondary rivalries in the smaller seats of learning are getting to feel more and more that they are on the outside looking in. They seem to be getting tired of Club combination on the latter's court playing second string to the big fellows and running off championships for the express delectation of Harvard, Yale, Princeton. Cornell, Penn and Dartmonth.

They have decided to form an association of their own, which means that the big fellows will be barred. An organi-zation meeting has been called for to-morrow afternoon at Springfield, Mass, the site of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. college. Thirty colleges have been in-vited to send delegates.

It is altacether likely that western colleges will patronize the I. C. A. A. A. games this year. The University of California, Michigan and Leland Stanford are virtually committed to attend. The two Pacific coast colleges joined the association before the nation entered the war and will be obliged to send teams this year or forfeit their membership. They do not intend to drop out of eastern competition. Before the war interfered these two universities were making a strong bid for accound honors. They will not rest until one or the after takes the championship back to the Pacific coast. The University of Michigan, although obliged to compete in the Western Conference, also expects to be present at the western meet. It will not be an easy matter for one team to compete consistently at two championship meetings on successive Saturdays.
